SMART Education© Kit: Each kit contains the complete 7 session Facilitator Manual curriculum as well as 30 Student Manuals, 30 student giveaways, (SMART bracelets, t-shirts or similar motivational item,) Smarties® candies and technical support via phone/email. Shipping costs vary. The Facilitator Manual is yours to keep. You would only need to order additional Student Manuals for future classes.

Student Giveaways: These giveaways such as imprinted bracelets serve as reminders of what students learned in the SMART Education© program and of the commitments they made to having healthier relationships. Each student should receive one giveaway. Bracelets/t-shirts, etc will say "Get SMART Relationships!" or a similar motivational statement.

Presenter Training: If you choose to purchase a SMART Education© Kit, you will find it helpful to select a person or persons from your school or organization who will be your SMART Presenter(s). The creator and co-author of the program, Kristin Melton, NCC, LCPC is available to come and train your presenter(s). Costs include up to 3 hours of training on SMART Education© and technical support. (Travel expenses vary by location.)

Hire a Presenter: Depending on your location, you can hire a presenter to come and present the curriculum for you. Some locations may not be eligible for this program element. We do try to keep the audience size as small as possible to ensure quality teaching and class discussion.
